

REPLACED BY
ART 34 AMDT

- 18 -

WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

1. The apparatus to record the signals obtained with an active sonar device together with 5 the images obtained simultaneously with a video camera on the same objects.
2. The apparatus to transmit, to recording and to use the depth information, together with the video signals, in order to produce a video image in several images which corresponds to the distance information registered or programmed.
3. The apparatus which have a display device formed by several independent liquid
10 crystal screens in order to display images with a three dimensional perception or effect.
4. The apparatus to record and play from the store device, the sound and video signals, and the distance information registered or programmed.

15

20

25

30